MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND (CEO)

In every generation, inspired people have come forth to meet the challenges of their day. We now face an era that is calling for a new level of Spirit filled, scholarly leaders. The great Rev. Dr. Benjamin Mays once said that "if religion is to be respectable, challenging and increasingly helpful...we have no other choice than to concern ourselves more in the future with theological education among (our people) than we have in the past." That future calls to us today, and Jackson Theological Seminary is ready to answer.

With your committed support, I believe we can help develop courageous change-agents for the pulpit and the public square, God being our helper. With a robust student body, thoughtful academic rigor, engaging theological scholarship, and an intentional strategy to build the beloved community, we will make a difference in the lives of people and institutions in local and global theatres. Let us challenge each other to be excellent. As our staff and faculty work together with you to train Kingdom-minded leaders, there is no doubt that the Jackson experience will foster deep spiritual formation, integrity, and hunger to tell the old story of Jesus and his love. Welcome to the next level of preparation in service to "God our Creator, Christ our Redeemer, the Holy Spirit our Comforter and humankind our family.

Rev. Clarence Guy
President & CEO of Jackson Theological Seminary

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF ACADEMIC OFFICER (CAO) AND DEAN OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

The mission of Jackson Theological Seminary (JTS) is to prepare people for service to the local church and the broader community through transformative teaching and training. JTS has been committed to this cause since its inception.

Our administration, faculty, and staff are intentional about equipping men and women for Christian service, especially in and through the local church. We are inspired by the words of the apostle Paul who saw the role of Christian leaders as “equipping God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ” (Ephesians 4). We accomplish this by educating Christian leaders in biblical truth and biblical application.

JTS is not merely an institution of higher learning but a Christ-centered, biblically grounded, and socially aware community of faith, where theological training is meant to strengthen students’ epistemological and experiential relationship with Christ. Students are built up spiritually, theologically, and socially to do the same in their various ministerial contexts. Our pedagogical approach is shaped by the rich tradition of the Wesleyan quadrilateral where, “Scripture is considered the primary source and standard for Christian doctrine. Tradition is experience and the witness of development and growth of the faith through the past centuries and in many nations and cultures. Experience is the individual’s understanding and appropriating of the faith in the light of his or her own life. Through Reason, the individual Christian brings to bear on the Christian faith discerning and cogent thought. These four elements taken together bring the individual Christian to a mature and fulfilling understanding of the Christian faith and the required response of worship and service.”

We look forward to partnering with you in your theological and ministerial training.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ron Lindo, Jr.

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Jackson Theological Seminary (JTS) had its beginning with Shorter College in 1886 and shared many of Shorter's physical facilities and programs. The Seminary is named for the late Dr. Thomas Henry Jackson who served as President 1895-1900 and Dean of the Theological Department 1904 – 1912. Dr. Jackson is a graduate of Wilberforce University. He entered Wilberforce at the age of 14, graduating with the first class, in 1870. In 1865, he was converted and entered the active ministry of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, thus serving 56 years.

Jackson Theological Seminary is owned and operated by the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The Seminary is a valid Servant of the Church. Since the first graduate, Reverend John March Murchison in 1903, the Seminary has been an effective guide to those aspiring to be useful and great. Jackson Theological Seminary (JTS) played a major role in providing theological and religious education to clergy and lay students in the 12th Episcopal District. In order to more adequately serve its basic purpose of educating and training Christian Ministers and Lay Leaders; several Extension Centers were authorized in Arkansas and Oklahoma. At least 30 hours earned in the Extension Centers could be applied toward the 90-hour course providing other academic requirements were met.

JTS offers a Master of Divinity and Bachelor of Biblical Studies (BA Degree Completion). While the school was not accredited by an accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, the administration and faculty modeled the seminary after those that were accredited in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The leadership of JTS was recognized alternately as either the President or Dean of the seminary.

Some of the individuals who served as Deans during the period of 1960 to 2011 were:

- The Reverend J.M. Watkins
- The Reverend Rufus King Young, Sr.
- The Reverend Nathaniel Irving
- The Reverend Dr. Colin Lambert
- The Reverend James R. Hooper
- The Reverend Clarence H. Guy
- The Reverend Clarence V. Boyd, Sr.

Jackson Theological Seminary held classes and taught courses in theology, Christian education, pastoral leadership, and preaching continuously from 1960 to 2010. In the spring of 2009, JTS entered into an off-campus distance learning partnership with Florida Center for Theological Studies. The Florida Center for Theological Studies was an accredited seminary and using teleconferencing technology Jackson was able to offer students the opportunity to take graduate-level courses from an accredited school. The partnership lasted four semesters and ended when Florida Center for Theological Studies merged with another school that discontinued the distance learning program. Jackson discontinued holding classes after the 2011 school year because of a need to focus more attention on Shorter College.

Any objective evaluation of its current status should include the primary concern of the original intent and historical mission.

The African Methodist Episcopal Church decided to establish, maintain, and develop an institution for the Theological Education of both Ministers and Laymen. The African Methodist Episcopal Church takes pride in the fact that it produces most of her leaders. JTS is a positive expression of the vision and determination to sustain this heritage in a relevant and responsible manner.

Seeing the need to provide theological education to Clergy and Layperson, the 12th Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, decided to reopen Jackson Theological Seminary and pursue accreditation with TRACS (Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools), offering a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies (a degree completion program) and a Master of Divinity Degree. In June 2018, under the leadership of the Chair of the Board of Trustees, Bishop Michael Leon Mitchell and Rev. Cecil Williams, Jr., President of Jackson Theological Seminary, the Seminary opened its doors to a brand-new facility for the continued purpose of educating and preparing clergy and lay for ministry from a theological perspective.

BIBLICAL FOUNDATION (FAITH STATEMENT)

The Bible

The sacred text that holds the historicity and spiritual authenticity of the relationship with God and humanity. It further shares the unique divine wisdom of the Lord. The unique divine, plenary, verbal inspiration and absolute authority of all sixty-six canonical books of the Old and New Testaments as originally given. The Bible is the only infallible, authoritative Word of God. and is free from error of any sort, in all matters with which it deals, scientific, historical, moral, and theological. The Bible further records the eschatological beliefs of the Church. (TRACS)The unique divine, plenary, verbal inspiration and absolute authority of all sixty-six canonical books of the Old and New Testaments as originally given. The Bible is the only infallible, authoritative Word of God and is free from error of any sort, in all matters with which it deals, scientific, historical, moral, and theological.

The Trinity

The triune Godhead, one eternal, transcendent, omnipotent, personal God existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Father: God the Father, the first person of the Divine Trinity, is infinite Spirit, sovereign, eternal, and unchangeable in all His attributes. He is worthy of honor, adoration, and obedience.

The Son

The Perfect, sinless humanity and the absolute, full deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, indissolubly united in one divine-human person since His unique incarnation by miraculous conception and virgin birth.

The Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Godhead who convicts, regenerates, indwells, seals all believers in Christ, and fills those who yield to Him. The Holy Spirit gives spiritual gifts to all believers; however, the manifestation of any particular gift is not required as evidence of salvation.

Historicity

The full historicity and perspicuity of the biblical record of primeval history, including the literal existence of Adam and Eve as the progenitors of all people, the literal fall and resultant divine curse on the creation, the worldwide cataclysmic deluge, and the origin of nations and languages at the tower of Babel.

Redemption

The substitutionary and redemptive sacrifice of Jesus Christ for the sin of the world, through His literal physical death, burial, and resurrection, followed by His bodily ascension into heaven.

Salvation

Personal salvation from the eternal penalty of sin provided solely by the grace of God on the basis of the atoning death and resurrection of Christ, to be received only through personal faith in His person and work.

Last Things

The future, personal, bodily return of Jesus Christ to the earth to judge and purge sin, to establish His eternal Kingdom, and to consummate and fulfill His purposes in the works of creation and redemption with eternal rewards and punishments.

Biblical Creation

Special creation of the existing space-time universe and all its basic systems and kinds of organisms in the six literal days of the creation week.

Satan

The existence of a personal, malevolent being called Satan who acts as tempter and accuser, for whom the place of eternal punishment was prepared, where all who die outside of Christ shall be confined in conscious torment for eternity.

The Apostles Creed

The creed encapsulates the core of our belief system. It incorporates the unified presence and individual power of the triune Godhead. It further shares the redemptive, salvific work of that same God. It states that we believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead; and buried. The third day he arose from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Church Universal, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen

PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

The seminary students and faculty seek to experience and examine theological training and thought formation centered on the exquisite grace of God, the example of Jesus Christ, and the excellent power of the Holy Spirit. Our philosophy of education emphasizes teaching and learning as an expression of social justice and liberation theology, tempered with service to community, and faith inspired by biblical, scriptural authority and historical Christian beliefs.

STATEMENT OF ETHICAL VALUES

The ethical values and standards of Jackson Theological Seminary seek to exemplify the liberating ministry, the services of sacrifice, and the standards of justice and love of Jesus Christ in ministerial and pastoral Christian service. The seminary is committed to representing the moral, ethical traditions and standards espoused by the Holy Bible (Old and New Testaments) and the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

Enrollment in Jackson Theological Seminary constitutes a recognition and reverence for these ethical values and standards by all students.

CORE VALUES

Biblical/Scriptural Authority: The extent to which the commandments and doctrines within the Old and New Testament scriptures are authoritative for human belief, conduct and destiny.

Historical Faith: Historical belief, trust, and loyalty of Christian Faith as described in the Old and New Testaments and through the Trinity - God the Father, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

Academic Rigor: Teach conceptual understanding, procedural skill, fluency, and application.

Social Justice: Teach concepts of fair and just relations between the individual and society. This is measured by the explicit and tacit terms for the distribution of wealth, opportunities for personal activity, and social privileges. Micah 6:8..... what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Liberation: The process to fight the ills of sin and exploitation through the relationship between Christian theology and political activism, economic justice, poverty, and human rights.

Service Orientation: The call to serve community, however, especially the least, the weak, poor and the needy. Mark 10:43–45but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

FACULTY PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL AND DEVELOPMENT

Performance appraisals are used to document job performance and successful completion of probationary periods (periodic performance appraisals). It should be noted that a performance evaluation does not necessarily mean a salary adjustment. It is important that an employee is recognized for good performance and that the member receives appropriate suggestions for improvement when necessary. Consistent with this goal, the member's performance, conduct, and attendance will be observed, documented, and evaluated by the supervisor on an ongoing basis. The member may also receive periodic written evaluations.

Annual performance appraisals shall be conducted on all full-time Faculty/Staff member members who have been employed as a full-time employee for three (3) months as of October each year.

If a member is transferred to a new position, he/she will receive a periodic evaluation after the member has been in the new job for three months, but this may also occur more frequently if the supervisor or department head feels it is necessary. The releasing supervisor will provide a complete performance appraisal. This appraisal will be averaged with the new position if the employee meets requirements for an annual appraisal.

All written performance reviews will be based on the employee's overall performance in relation to the job responsibilities and will also consider conduct, demeanor, and record of attendance and punctuality.

When a supervisor is aware of a problem concerning a subordinate member's job performance, conduct, attendance or other problems, it is the supervisor's responsibility to privately counsel the employee regarding the problem(s), advising the employee of the standards that must be met, setting time limits in which to meet them if necessary, and the consequences for not meeting them. Any members who refuse to, or otherwise does not, perform the duties of his or her assigned position, in a manner acceptable to the seminary is subject to disciplinary action, including termination. This applies to faculty/staff's conduct and attendance as well.

When a supervisor completes any type of evaluation on an employee, the employee is asked to sign the form. The purpose for this is to assure the Chairman of the Board that the employee has been counseled, has been informed of the contents of the evaluation and that the employee has received a copy. The signature of the employee is in no way an indication of approval or disapproval of the contents of the evaluation.

Periodically the Chairman of the Board will undertake specific, targeted instruction in such matters regarding equal employment opportunity matters, administrative procedures, and internal supervisory and disciplinary practices. All training should be documented, and the original forwarded to DAR's office for filing. Documentation of training/counseling etc. should be placed on JTS Form 10 (Jackson Theological Seminary Log sheet).

All Faculty/Staff member should avail themselves to outside training opportunities. Job-related training opportunities can be supplemented by the Seminary if they are job-related and approved by the Board.

Jackson Theological Seminary will ensure that student/faculty/staff alike are notified of the availability of two Urgent Care Facilities near the Seminary:

- a. Baptist Health Urgent Care, 3530 Spring Hill Dr. North Little Rock, AR (4/2 Miles) or North Little Rock, AR.

While it is not easy to define precisely what harassment is, it includes slurs, epithets, threats, derogatory comments or visual depictions, unwelcome jokes, and teasing.

Any student that feels he/she is a victim of such harassment should immediately report the matter to the following member of management who has been designated to receive such complaints: Dr. Ron Lindo

The Seminary will investigate all such reports as confidentially as possible. Adverse action will not be taken against a student because he/she, in good faith, reports or participates in the investigation of a violation of this policy. Violations of this policy are not permitted and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the Seminary.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Jackson Theological seminary has a policy that prohibits sexual harassment or discrimination against any staff, faculty, and student of the Seminary based on sex. FACULTY AND STAFF PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL AND DEVELOPMENT

Performance appraisals are used to document job performance and successful completion of probationary periods (periodic performance appraisals). It should be noted that a performance evaluation does not necessarily mean a salary adjustment. It is important that an employee is recognized for good performance and that the member receives appropriate suggestions for improvement when necessary. Consistent with this goal, the member's performance, conduct, and attendance will be observed, documented, and evaluated by the supervisor on an ongoing basis. The member may also receive periodic written evaluations.

Annual performance appraisals shall be conducted on all full-time Faculty/Staff member members who have been employed as a full-time employee for three (3) months as of October each year.

If a member is transferred to a new position, he/she will receive a periodic evaluation after the member has been in the new job for three months, but this may also occur more frequently if the supervisor or department head feels it is necessary. The releasing supervisor will provide a complete performance appraisal. This appraisal will be averaged with the new position if the employee meets requirements for an annual appraisal.

All written performance reviews will be based on the employee's overall performance in relation to the job responsibilities and will also consider conduct, demeanor, and record of attendance and punctuality.

When a supervisor is aware of a problem concerning a subordinate member's job performance, conduct, attendance, or other problems, it is the supervisor's responsibility to privately counsel the employee regarding the problem(s), advising the employee of the standards that must be met, setting time limits in which to meet them if necessary, and the consequences for not meeting them. Any members who refuse to, or otherwise does not, perform the duties of his or her assigned position, in a manner acceptable to the seminary is subject to disciplinary action, including termination. This applies to faculty/staff's conduct and attendance as well.

When a supervisor completes any type of evaluation on an employee, the employee is asked to sign the form. The purpose for this is to assure the Chairman of the Board that the employee has been counseled, has been informed of the contents of the evaluation and that the employee has received a copy. The signature of the employee is in no way an indication of approval or disapproval of the contents of the evaluation.

Periodically the Chairman of the Board will undertake specific, targeted instruction in such matters regarding equal employment opportunity matters, administrative procedures, and internal supervisory and disciplinary practices. All training should be documented, and the original forwarded to DAR's office for filing. Documentation of training/counseling etc. should be placed on JTS Form 10 (Jackson Theological Seminary Log sheet).

COMPLYING WITH APPLICABLE INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY AND COPYRIGHTS

COPYRIGHT COMPLIANCE POLICY

The purpose of the Jackson Theological Seminary Copyright Compliance Policy for the Library and the Classroom is to provide a summary of United States Copyright Law as it relates to the use of copyright protected works in the classroom and library at Jackson Theological Seminary. This policy covers copyright issues including but not limited to photocopying, traditional and online classrooms, print and electronic holdings, Interlibrary loans, and document deliveries. This policy is not intended to be a substitute for legal advice. Specific rights are granted to students and faculty for their individual creative work. U.S. Copyright Act (Title 17, U.S. Code). Among the exclusive rights granted to "authors" are the rights to reproduce, distribute, publicly perform, and publicly display their works. These works may include books, magazines, journals, newsletters, maps, charts, photographs, other printed materials, and non- printed materials. These rights provide copyright holders control over the use of their creations and an ability to benefit monetarily and otherwise, from the use of their works. Non-copyright holders, as determined by the law, must generally obtain copyright permission prior to using or reproducing that work. Exceptions in the Copyright Act are for certain academic uses; for example, permission is not required for actions such as reading or borrowing original literary works or photographs from a library collection. See Fair Use Provision (Copyright Act, Section 107).

Under the Fair Use Provision, a reproduction of someone else's copyright-protected work is likely to be considered fair if it is used for one of the following purposes: criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, scholarship, and research. If the reproduction is for one of these purposes, a determination as to whether the reproduction is fair use must be made based upon these four factors:

1. Purpose and character of the use.
2. Nature of the copyright – protected work.
3. Amount and substantiality of work used.
4. Effect of the use on the market or potential market value of the work.

To minimize the risk of copyright infringement, Jackson interprets the following as fair use of copyrighted works:

1. Quotation of short passages in a scholarly or technical work for illustration or clarification of the author's observations.

2. Spontaneous one-time use or reproduction of material for classroom use.
3. Use in parody of short portions of the work itself.
4. A summary of an address or article, which may include quotations of short passages.

If the user does not meet the above criteria and the work is protected by copyright, permission from the copyright holder or agent needs to be obtained.

Classroom Handouts fall into two categories; one that requires permission and one that does not. If the handout is spontaneous and new work that permission could not be obtained in a timely manner, the work may be used without obtaining permission. If the handout is planned, repeated from semester to semester, or involves works that have existed long enough to obtain permission in advance; the work cannot be used without permission.

Copies of a publication that the library owns may be placed on reserve in the library without obtaining copyright permission. However, the library cannot reproduce additional copies and place them on reserve for students to review, in either paper or electronic format, without obtaining copyright permission.

Photocopying by Faculty and Staff is subject to a fair use analysis as well. Photocopying all the assignments from a book recommended for purchase by the professor, making multiple copies of articles or book chapters for distribution to classmates, or copying material from consumable workbooks, all require copyright permission.

Photocopying in the Jackson Library is permissible without obtaining permission from the copyright owner, under the following circumstances:

1. Library user requests one copy of an article from a periodical or short excerpt of any other work.
2. The reproduction must become the property of the library user.
3. The library staff must have no reason to believe that the reproduction will be used for purposes other than private study, scholarship, and research.
4. The library must display: The Copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproduction of copyright material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not "used for any purposes other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.
5. Up to three reproductions of any unpublished work owned by the library may be made for preservation, security or for a deposit for research use in another library or archives, including digital reproductions, of a published work that is lost, stolen, damaged, deteriorating or stored in an obsolete format.

FACULTY & STAFF COMPLAINT/GRIEVANCE POLICY

The core values of Jackson Theological Seminary embrace:

1. Excellence
2. Tolerance
3. Servant Leadership
4. Spiritual Formation, Growth, and Transformation

These values are demonstrated by a passion for high standards, which include respect, honesty, justice, integrity, and accountability. Tolerance is demonstrated through an unreserved acceptance of the concepts of love, justice, forgiveness, and a capacity for openness to difference. Further, Jackson believes in a servant leadership that is lived out through being a responsible steward who serves with care, humility, and strength of boldness as he/she articulates his/her vision and inspires others. With this in mind, we are committed to an on-going process of spiritual formation, growth, and transformation through honest self-reflection and prayer.

It is recognized that disagreements and misunderstandings will occur within the human community. Therefore, this grievance policy is guided by the above values and behaviors and a desire for conflict resolution within a spirit and atmosphere of love and tolerance.

This policy covers all faculty/staff/ admirations/student grievances, except those infractions covered by the law, such as sexual harassment and gender and age discrimination, which apply to the whole community. These areas are covered in the different policy and will require a different process.

PROCESS

If a faculty member has a disagreement with a faculty member, a staff member or a member of the administration, the first hope is that the issue is resolved amicably. If not, at least one of the parties does have the option to make a written statement that an issue exists, has not been resolved and they should state the facts of the incident(s) in truth as they remember it. If the grievance is with an employee of Jackson Theological Seminary, the statement should be submitted to the CEO or, if necessary, to the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees. he/she will follow the following process:

Step 2: A written statement shall be sent to the Chief Executive Officer. The CEO will apprise the CAO of the situation if it involves their direct report(s).

Step 3: The officer who received the Grievance will schedule to meet with all parties to investigate and seek an amicable resolution. If the issue is resolved here, both the matter will be documented and considered closed, and the reason it was not resolved.

Step 4: If the issue is not resolved here, either individual can petition the Grievance Committee to hear the situation and bring it to the most logical, amicable conclusion up to and including dismissal of the individual found to be at fault.

Petitioning the Grievance Committee. This petition is heard by the Grievance Committee who may meet as often as necessary to come to a final decision to the matter. The composition of the Committee will be at least two Board of Trustee members and one Administrator of the Institution. This will not be considered as a legal hearing. The Chair shall appoint all members of the Grievance committee as needed.

Once a decision is reached, the petition is signed and dated by the chair of the Grievance Committee and a letter will be sent to the aggrieved party, and those directly involved stating the decision and the rationale for the decision. A copy of all documents pertaining to the matter will be filed with the Board of Trustees and (when applicable) the CEO.

It is recognized that some may not be satisfied with the decision of the Grievance Committee. In this case, the petition and attached decision of the Grievance Committee can be appealed to the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, who is encouraged to be in consultation with the CEO and CAO (when applicable). The Chairperson has the right to resolve the issue based upon the documentation, evidence and the Chairperson's judgment.

The academic year operates under a semester system. Credit for all courses is recorded in semester credit hours. One credit hour amounts to one hour of in-class instruction and two hours of additional student work per week. A 50-minute period of instruction per week for one semester is equivalent to one (1) credit hour. All courses must meet the equivalent of 750 contact minutes (direct instruction) per credit value. Each student is expected to perform a minimum of two hours of out-of-class work each week for each credit hour of instruction. Most of the courses offered by the Seminary meet twice a week for one hour and 20 minutes and carry three (3) semester credit hours.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Academic honors are recognized at Jackson Theological Seminary during commencement for students who achieve a cumulative grade point average (GPA) according to the following standard:

Summa Cum Laude	(3.90 – 4.00)
Magna Cum Laude	(3.75 – 3.89)
Cum Laude	(3.50 – 3.74)

In order to earn honors, a student must complete at least 60 credit hours at Jackson Theological Seminary, and only courses taken at Jackson will be considered in the cumulative GPA calculation.

INCOMPLETE WORK

In exceptional cases, such as illness or family emergency, a student may request an incomplete grade from an instructor no later than the last day of class. Thereafter, an incomplete must be requested from the Academic Dean. If approved, the instructor signs the Incomplete Form or sends approval by email to the Registrar. Course work for an approved incomplete must be completed and submitted no later than 30 days after the last day of the session for M.Div. and special students. Students who fail to submit required course work by the deadline will receive an “F” grade for the course.

For intensive courses, such as those offered during the summer term, requests for an incomplete must be made directly to the instructor by the due date of the last assignment for the course as stated in the course syllabus. Any student request that comes after the appropriate deadline but within ten days of the deadline must be requested from the Academic Dean.

The instructor is required to submit the grade change within thirty days of receiving the completed work from the student. Incomplete grades can jeopardize a student’s financial aid status. Students with at least one incomplete are placed on Registrar Hold until the incomplete is resolved. Students on Registrar Hold will have limited access in the student information system (SIS), including the inability to register for upcoming courses.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS - STANDING

Satisfactory academic progress (SAP) is checked at the conclusion of each semester. In order to meet the requirements of SAP, a Bachelors/M.Div. student must achieve a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA. If a student meets or exceeds the minimum of 2.5 GPA, the student will be listed as in “Good Standing”. If a student fails to meet SAP requirements, the student will be placed on academic warning for the coming semester. If a student fails to meet satisfactory progress during the academic warning period, the student will be placed on academic probation.

Students on academic warning and/or academic probation may only take up to nine (9) credits per semester. Students on academic probation must work with the to develop an academic plan in an effort to meet satisfactory progress in an efficient and timely manner. In addition, probation students will be placed on registration hold and must consult with the registrar in order to have the classes approved and the hold released.

There are times in which a semester’s worth of hours may not be enough to increase the cumulative GPA to a minimum 2.5. In these instances, so long as the student receives a minimum 2.5 GPA for the semester in which they are on academic warning or probation, the respective status will continue into the future semester until satisfactory academic progress is made. Students that fail to meet the requirements of academic probation may be subject to suspension from the program and/or dismissal from the institution.

Students who have been suspended from the program may appeal for re-entry at the beginning of the next semester. To appeal, the student must provide a written letter with evidence to the Dean and Registrar that the problems causing the unsatisfactory progress to have been resolved.

DROP ADD POLICY

Classes may be dropped during the first two weeks of the session. Intensives may be dropped up to the day before the start of the class. Dropped classes will not count against you in your cumulative grade point average. Please see the official Drop/Add Policy in the Finance Information section for complete details.

WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES

VOLUNTARY WITHDRAW

Voluntary Withdrawal from Jackson Theological Seminary requires the submission of an official Notice of Intent to Withdraw to the Registrar. Until an official withdrawal form has been submitted to the Registrar, the student is not considered officially withdrawn from the seminary, which may adversely affect the student's grade point average, academic standing, and financial aid or tuition refunds. A student who received financial aid funds at the Seminary and withdraws from the Seminary during the semester (for any reason) must consult the Financial Aid Officer to have a withdrawal calculation performed.

INVOLUNTARY WITHDRAW

Involuntary Withdrawal is issued when the Seminary is forced to ask a student to leave because of a violation of seminary rules and regulations, conduct deemed unacceptable, or when the student misses several classes without notification. No adjustment is made to student charges. The official date of withdrawal is determined by the Registrar.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A Bachelors/M.Div. student may request a leave of absence due to extenuating circumstances. Students should return a completed Leave of Absence Request Form and copies of official documentation (if required) to the Registrar. If approved, the Registrar will then place the student on Leave Status. The Maximum Length of time for a Leave of Absence is one Calendar Year. Those who do not return by the next semester (Fall or Spring) after one year will need to reapply.

STUDENT ATTENDANCE

Class attendance is essential for effective learning. Students will be expected to attend all classes unless prevented by illness or emergency. Instructors will clearly define in the syllabus the make-up policy for the course. The instructor may use attendance to calculate course grades, which will be defined and documented in the course syllabus.

ACADEMIC CLASSIFICATIONS

BA and M.Div.: Students are classified according to the number of credit hours completed. The required credit hours for each classification are as follows:

BA STUDENTS

MDIV STUDENTS

ACADEMIC ADVISING & REGISTRATION

The Chief Academic Officer (CAO) will assign a faculty advisor to assist each student with their academic decisions as they matriculate their graduate and undergraduate experience. In addition, the Registrar's Office will work with students on registering for courses and monitoring degree audits. The cost and payment of each student's education must be completed by the end of each semester.

Open registration occurs at the following times:
Fall semester registration	1 – August

Summer term registration	TBD:

Students can register through the student information system (SIS) POPULI Populi - Jackson Theological Seminary \(populiweb.com\)

Following the first semester, students are responsible for registering themselves during the open registration period defined above. Tuition is due at the time of enrollment.

The Course Schedule is published each semester via the website at www.jtseminary.org. It provides information on all courses offered during that semester and important semester dates.

ACADEMIC ETHICS

Jackson Theological Seminary trusts the students who enroll at Jackson to be honest seekers of truth and knowledge. This trust is extended to all students by other students and teachers and is manifested in a variety of forms.

Jackson Theological Seminary is committed to providing educational opportunities that promote academic, professional, and personal growth in students. Students are expected to behave as responsible members of the Seminary community and to be honest and ethical in their academic work. Activities of academic dishonesty corrupt the process of acquiring the knowledge and developing the skills necessary for success in ministry; such activities are considered a violation of the Student Rules of Conduct and are therefore prohibited.

Students must be mindful that, although Jackson encourages cooperative and collaborative, rather than competitive, modes of learning, one's work must still be one's own, unless explicitly assigned to a group. Giving or receiving aid inappropriately on assignments and tests or plagiarizing by using another person's words or ideas without credit, constitutes a serious breach of our trust in one another and in the integrity of the search for truth.

The use of another person's work as if it were one's own is deemed as plagiarism. If the work of another is used, acknowledgement of the original source must be made using a recognized referencing practice. If another's words are borrowed in whole or in part or merely recast in the student's own words, proper acknowledgement must be made.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Jackson Theological Seminary affirms that this institution of higher education is conducted for the common good and not to further the interest of either the individual faculty member or the institution as a whole. The common good depends upon the free search for truth and its exposition.

Academic freedom is essential to these purposes and applies to all disciplines. Freedom in research is fundamental to the advancement of truth. Academic freedom in all disciplines is fundamental for the protection of the rights of the faculty and the student. It carries with it duties correlative with rights, regardless of employment status.

SYLLABI DEVELOPMENT AND APPROVAL

Jackson Theological Seminary is committed to ensuring that a comprehensive course syllabus sets expectations for students regarding requirements and important policies for the class. The syllabus will also set a tone for the course that can provide a foundation for students to be successful. All faculty members at Jackson Theological seminary should develop course syllabi that inform students of important course and Seminary information.

REQUIREMENTS:

Contents: At minimum, the syllabus must contain course goals; course objectives; and the “basis for assessing student performance

Faculty Participation: If possible, faculty should provide details regarding how assignments will be evaluated (e.g., rubrics or general standards and expectations).

Faculty Review: The Syllabi will be reviewed by the Faculty.

Syllabi Adoption/Approval: The Chief Academic Officer will approve the submitted syllabi prior to it being placed on Populi (or published for public viewership).

TEXTBOOK ADOPTION AND MANAGEMENT

Jackson Theological Seminary is committed to ensuring that textbook adoptions promote a high-quality educational experience. The Seminary is also committed to:

1. Minimize the costs of textbooks for its students.
2. Faculty should carefully consider the appropriateness of textbooks and other supplemental materials for each course (content, pedagogy, and teaching in the discipline), the cost to students, and factors that determine the cost.
3. Early Adoption: To ensure textbook adoptions are made with sufficient lead time to confirm availability and, where possible, ensure maximum availability of used textbooks, faculty members (or textbook coordinators) should submit textbook and course material adoption information to CAO on the following schedule: Fall Semester and Summer Session adoptions by May 1 Spring Semester and Winter Term adoptions by December 1 Faculty members assigned to a course after the deadlines above should make textbook selections on a timely basis. Early adoption of textbooks enables the students to secure their time for the start of classes.
4. Faculty should carefully consider the content of new versus existing editions of textbooks. Repeated use of the same textbook in a course provides opportunities for students to acquire used textbooks, which can often save students significant costs. In choosing between a new version and an existing edition, faculty should consider whether content revisions warrant the cost differential that is often associated with using a new edition.
5. Use of Required Items: Faculty members should ensure that a significant portion of each assigned textbook will be used in the course. If supplemental materials are sold with the textbook (a practice called bundling), faculty members should be aware of the variance in price between the bundled and unbundled items. They should consider whether all parts of the bundle are intended for use in the course. Faculty may ask the bookstore whether it can obtain from the publishers only a subset of the bundled items.

6. Alternative Approaches: Faculty members may want to consider permitting students to purchase electronic versions of textbooks when available or to incorporate the use of online resources into course instruction wherever feasible or prudent. The CAO will have the final word on books to be used.

These values are demonstrated by a passion for high standards, which include respect, honesty, justice, integrity, and accountability. Further, Jackson believes in a servant leadership that is lived out through being a responsible steward who serves with care, humility, and strength of boldness as he/she articulates his/her vision and inspires others. If not, at least one of the parties does have the option to make a written statement that an issue exists, has not been resolved and they should state the facts of the incident(s) in truth as they remember it. Step 4: If the issue is not resolved here, either individual can petition the Grievance Committee to hear the situation and bring it to the most logical, amicable conclusion up to and including dismissal of the individual found to be at fault.

PETITIONING THE GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

This petition is heard by the Grievance Committee who may meet as often as necessary to come to a final decision to the matter. The composition of the Committee will be at least two Board of Trustee member and one Administrator of the Institution. This will not be considered as a legal hearing.

Once a decision is reached, the petition is signed and dated by the chair of the Grievance Committee and a letter will be sent to the aggrieved party, and those directly involved stating the decision and the rationale for the decision. A copy of all documents pertaining to the matter will be filed with the Board of Trustees and (when applicable) the CEO.

It is recognized that some may not be satisfied with the decision of the Grievance Committee. In this case, the petition and attached decision of the Grievance Committee can be appealed to the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees, who is encouraged to be in consultation with the CEO and CAO (when applicable). The Chairperson has the right to resolve the issue based upon the documentation, evidence and the Chairperson's judgment.

The Chairperson will respond by letter to the aggrieved party informing her/him of their final decision. A copy of the letter will be attached to the previous papers and filed.
