TITLE IV STATEMENT

Jackson Theological Seminary (JTS) is approved for provisional participation in Title IV and maintains a copy of the Program Participation Agreement (PPA). Financial Aid is currently available for all who qualify.

INSTITUTIONAL INTEGRITY

The Board of Trustees, President, administrators, staff, and faculty of Jackson Theological seminary will operate with integrity, representing itself accurately and honestly to students, and the public. Furthermore, the institution will maintain honest and open communication with all accreditation, federal and state agencies and will abide by the policies and procedures set forth by each entity.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Greetings on behalf of the Board of Trustees and welcome to the Jackson Theological Seminary Family!

This is an exciting time for the faculty, staff and especially the students of Jackson. We are entering a new era of educational and academic excellence that will prepare our students to render a higher quality of service to the church and the community. Jackson Theological Seminary is committed to values that promote the welfare and positive transformation of individuals, communities and societies. The faculty, administration and staff are committed to producing effective Christian leaders in pastoral and ministerial service. The Jackson faculty excels in teaching and scholarship, sharing with students their passion for the wisdom and understanding of the Word of God, and it's literal and practical application.

We value ethical conduct, the pursuit of truth and knowledge carried out in the spirit of intellectual freedom, diversity, and community engagement.

Jackson is an educational institution that prepares students for service to the church and the community through transformative teaching and training.

Jackson Theological Seminary is on track to become a preeminent institution of higher learning that will serve the Arkansas region at a national level of quality. Offering a commitment to the needs, interests and goals of our students, we have developed an outstanding curriculum that nurtures and promotes exceptional Christian ministry leadership.

Matriculation at Jackson Theological Seminary also cultivates an atmosphere to challenge us to be all that God intends. A unique balance of ministry preparation, leadership training and spiritual enrichment awaits all who have fully committed to the call and charge of God on their lives.

Bishop Michael L. Mitchell
Chairperson of the Board of Trustees

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER (CEO)

In every generation, inspired people have come forth to meet the challenges of their day. We now face an era that is calling for a new level of Spirit filled, scholarly leaders. The great Rev. Dr. Benjamin Mays once said that “if religion is to be respectable, challenging and increasingly helpful...we have no other choice than to concern ourselves more in the future with theological education among (our people) than we have in the past.” That future calls to us today, and Jackson Theological Seminary is ready to answer. With your committed support, I believe we can help develop courageous change-agents for the pulpit and the public square, God being our helper. With a robust student body, thoughtful academic rigor, engaging theological scholarship, and an intentional strategy to build the beloved community, we will make a difference in the lives of people and institutions in local and global theatres. Let us challenge each other to be excellent. As our staff and faculty work together with you to train Kingdom minded leaders, there is no doubt that the Jackson experience will foster deep spiritual formation, integrity and a hunger to tell the old story of a Jesus and his love. Welcome to the next level of preparation in service to “God our Creator, Christ our Redeemer, the Holy Spirit our Comforter and humankind our family.”

Rev. Clearance Guy
President & CEO of Jackson Theological Seminary

MESSAGE FROM THE CHIEF ACADEMIC OFFICER (CAO) AND DEAN OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

The mission of Jackson Theological Seminary (JTS) is to prepare people for service to the local church and the broader community through transformative teaching and training. JTS has been committed to this cause since its inception.

Our administration, faculty, and staff are intentional about equipping men and women for Christian service, especially in and through the local church. We are inspired by the words of the apostle Paul who saw the role of Christian leaders as “equipping God’s people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ” (Ephesians 4). We accomplish this by educating Christian leaders in biblical truth and biblical application.

JTS is not merely an institution of higher learning but a Christ-centered, biblically grounded, and socially aware community of faith, where theological training is meant to strengthen students’ epistemological and experiential relationship with Christ. Students are built up spiritually, theologically, and socially to do the same in their various ministerial contexts. Our pedagogical approach is shaped by the rich tradition of the Wesleyan quadrilateral where, “Scripture is considered the primary source and standard for Christian doctrine. Tradition is experience and the witness of development and growth of the faith through the past centuries and in many nations and cultures. Experience is the individual’s understanding and appropriating of the faith in the light of his or her own life. Through Reason, the individual Christian brings to bear on the Christian faith discerning and cogent thought. These four elements taken together bring the individual Christian to a mature and fulfilling understanding of the Christian faith and the required response of worship and service.”

We look forward to partnering with you in your theological and ministerial training.

Sincerely,

Dr. Ron Lindo, Jr.
Chief Academic Officer & Dean of Student Affairs

HISTORICAL SKETCH

Theological Seminary (JTS) had its beginning with Shorter College in 1886 and shared many of Shorter's physical facilities and programs. The Seminary is named for the late Dr. Thomas Henry Jackson who served as President 1895-1900 and Dean of the Theological Department 1904 – 1912. Dr. Jackson is a graduate of Wilberforce University. He entered Wilberforce at the age of 14, graduating with the first class, in 1870. In 1865, he was converted and entered the active ministry of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, thus serving 56 years.

Jackson Theological Seminary is owned and operated by the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The Seminary is a valid Servant of the Church. Since the first graduate, Reverend John March Murchison in 1903, the Seminary has been an effective guide to those aspiring to be useful and great. Jackson Theological Seminary (JTS) played a major role in providing theological and religious education to clergy and lay students in the 12th Episcopal District. In order to more adequately serve its basic purpose of educating and training Christian Ministers and Lay Leaders; several Extension Centers were authorized in Arkansas and Oklahoma. At least 30 hours earned in the Extension Centers could be applied toward the 90-hour course providing other academic requirements were met.

JTS offered Bachelor and Master degrees for students who completed their Associate of Arts degree from Shorter College. While the school was not accredited by an accrediting body recognized by the U.S. Department of Education, the administration and faculty modeled the seminary after those that were accredited in the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The leadership of JTS was recognized alternately as either the President or Dean of the seminary.

Some of the individuals who served as Deans during the period of 1960 to 2011 were:

- The Reverend J.M. Watkins
- The Reverend Rufus King Young, Sr.
- The Reverend Nathaniel Irving
- The Reverend Dr. Colin Lambert
- The Reverend James R. Hooper
- The Reverend Clarence H. Guy
- The Reverend Clarence V. Boyd, Sr.

Jackson Theological Seminary held classes and taught courses in theology, Christian education, pastoral leadership and preaching continuously from 1960 to 2010. In the spring of 2009, JTS entered into an off-campus distance learning partnership with Florida Center for Theological Studies. The Florida Center for Theological Studies was an accredited seminary and using tele-conferencing technology Jackson was able to offer students the opportunity to take graduate level courses from an accredited school. The partnership lasted four semesters and ended when Florida Center for Theological Studies merged with another school that discontinued the distance learning program. Jackson discontinued holding classes after the 2011 school year because of a need to focus more attention on Shorter College.

Any objective evaluation of its status should include the primary concern of the original intent and historical mission. The African Methodist Episcopal Church decided to establish, maintain, and develop an institution for the Theological Education of both Ministers and Laymen. The African Methodist Episcopal Church takes pride in the fact that it produces most of her leaders. JTS is a positive expression of the vision and determination to sustain this heritage in a relevant and responsible manner.

Seeing the need to provide a theological education to clergy and lay person, the 12th Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, decided to reopen Jackson Theological Seminary and pursue Accreditation Status through TRACS, offering a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies and a Master of Divinity Degree. Under the leadership of the Chair of the Board of Trustees, Bishop Michael Leon Mitchell, and the President Cecil L. Williams, Jr. in June 2018 Jackson Theological Seminary opened its doors to a brand-new facility for the continued purpose of educating and preparing clergy and lay for ministry from a theological perspective. Jackson Theological Seminary is in the process of submitting its application for Accreditation.

BIBLICAL FOUNDATION (FAITH STATEMENT)

Jackson Theological Seminary as a part of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, believes and affirm the following:

THE BIBLE

The unique divine, plenary, verbal inspiration and absolute authority of all sixty-six canonical books of the Old and New Testaments as originally given. The Bible is the only infallible, authoritative Word of God and is free from error of any sort, in all matters with which it deals, scientific, historical, moral, and theological.

THE TRINITY

The triune Godhead, one eternal, transcendent, omnipotent, personal God existing in three persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Father: God the Father, the first person of the Divine Trinity, is infinite Spirit, sovereign, eternal, and unchangeable in all His attributes. He is worthy of honor, adoration, and obedience.

THE SON

The Perfect, sinless humanity and the absolute, full deity of the Lord Jesus Christ, indissolubly united in one divine-human person since His unique incarnation by miraculous conception and virgin birth.

THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Godhead who convicts, regenerates, indwells, seals all believers in Christ, and fills those who yield to Him. The Holy Spirit gives spiritual gifts to all believers; however, the manifestation of any particular gift is not required as evidence of salvation.

HISTORICITY

The full historicity and perspicuity of the biblical record of primeval history, including the literal existence of Adam and Eve as the progenitors of all people, the literal fall and resultant divine curse on the creation, the worldwide cataclysmic deluge, and the origin of nations and languages at the tower of Babel.

REDEMPTION

The substitutionary and redemptive sacrifice of Jesus Christ for the sin of the world, through His literal physical death, burial, and resurrection, followed by His bodily ascension into heaven.

SALVATION

Personal salvation from the eternal penalty of sin provided solely by the grace of God on the basis of the atoning death and resurrection of Christ, to be received only through personal faith in His person and work.

LAST THINGS

The future, personal, bodily return of Jesus Christ to the earth to judge and purge sin, to establish His eternal Kingdom, and to consummate and fulfill His purposes in the works of creation and redemption with eternal rewards and punishments.

BIBLICAL CREATION

Special creation of the existing space-time universe and all its basic systems and kinds of organisms in the six literal days of the creation week.

SATAN

The existence of a personal, malevolent being called Satan who acts as tempter and accuser, for whom the place of eternal punishment was prepared, where all who die outside of Christ shall be confined in conscious torment for eternity.

APOSTLE'S CREED

"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ his only son our Lord who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead; and buried. The third day he arose from the dead' he ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Church Universal, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen."

PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

The seminary students and faculty seek to experience and examine theological training and thought formation centered on the exquisite grace of God, the example of Jesus Christ, and the excellent power of the Holy Spirit. Our philosophy of education emphasizes teaching and learning as an expression of social justice and liberation theology, tempered with service to community, and faith inspired by biblical, scriptural authority and historical Christian beliefs.

STATEMENT OF ETHICAL VALUES

The ethical values and standards of Jackson Theological Seminary seek to exemplify the liberating ministry, the services of sacrifice, and the standards of justice and love of Jesus Christ in ministerial and pastoral Christian service. The seminary is committed to representing the moral, ethical traditions and standards espoused by the Holy Bible (Old and New Testaments) and the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Enrollment in Jackson Theological Seminary constitutes a recognition and reverence for these ethical values and standards by all students.

CORE VALUES

Biblical/Scriptural Authority: The extent to which the commandments and doctrines within the Old and New Testament scriptures are authoritative for human belief, conduct and destiny.

Historical Faith: Historical belief, trust, and loyalty of Christian Faith as described in the Old and New Testaments and through the Trinity - God the Father, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit.

Academic Rigor: Teach conceptual understanding, procedural skill, fluency, and application.

Social Justice: Teach concepts of fair and just relations between the individual and society. This is measured by the explicit and tacit terms for the distribution of wealth, opportunities for personal activity, and social privileges. Micah 6:8 “What does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Liberation: The process to fight the ills of sin and exploitation through the relationship between Christian theology and political activism, economic justice, poverty, and human rights.

Service Orientation: The call to serve community, however, especially the least, the weak, poor and the needy. Mark 10:43–45 “But whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.”

VISION

A Global Academy, providing biblical foundations for Christian ministries that serve, transforms and liberates communities.

MISSION

Jackson Theological Seminary is an educational community preparing people for service to the local church and the broader community through transformative teaching and training. The faculty, administration and staff are committed to preparing students for effective Christian leadership in pastoral and ministerial service.

INSTITUTIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. The Seminary shall prepare students for careers and service in Christian ministry for the local church and global Christian ministry.
2. The Seminary shall promote and prepare academic and theological excellence and scholarship through holistic, inclusive, and involved teaching and training of students for the Bachelor of Arts in Biblical Studies and the Master of Divinity degree programs. Each program will sponsor a teaching, training, and learning environment, where all are encouraged to participate, grow and develop in Christian faith and service.
3. The Seminary shall educate, encourage, and engage students from varied spiritual, ethnic, cultural, male/female, and students with physical handicaps to encourage diversity and inclusiveness at the Seminary.
4. The Seminary staff, faculty, and Board of Trustees shall encourage solicitation of grants, aid, federal funding, research procedures, and practices to establish and enhance funding and scholarship for deserving students.
5. The Seminary shall promote and encourage the professional development of its faculty and staff to ensure relevant, realistic, and reliable instruction and training for all students.

INSTITUTIONAL POLICIES

CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

Jackson Theological Seminary has adopted procedures in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. To preserve strict confidentiality of records, the college does not permit access to or release of educational records or personal information, without the written consent of the student.

Jackson Theological Seminary also reaffirms the principle that its students, faculty, and staff have a right to be free from sexual discrimination in the form of sexual harassment by any member of the college community. Sexual harassment of students and employees at the college is unacceptable conduct, and it is also unlawful.

DISABILITY SERVICES

Jackson aspires to be an inclusive community. Striving for inclusion of all people is based upon Jackson's educational ideals. Our vision of good education involves community members learning about other members within an everyday context that mirrors the pluralistic world around us. This ideal applies equally to students of the Seminary who may have disabilities requiring reasonable accommodations. To this end, Jackson Seminary is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to qualified students with disabilities, in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. The Academic Services Office offers a variety of services to Jackson students who have documented physical, mental, or learning disabilities:

- assistance with registration

- academic advising/counseling
- physical accommodations
- assistance with note taking
- extended time
- large print
- testing accommodations
- oral tests
- distraction-free environment

It is important for students with documented disabilities to identify themselves to the Academic Services Office and their respective professors prior to the beginning of the semester. This will allow arrangements to be made to assure student success and to meet individual needs. Examples of physical disabilities include mobility limitations, sight, hearing, etc. Professors will work individually with students who have learning disabilities.

DISCRIMINATION FREE ENVIRONMENT

Jackson Theological Seminary does not, in its admission or employment policies and practices, discriminate against individuals based on extrinsic factors such as ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, color, religion, handicap, or status as a veteran of Vietnam War era or as a disabled veteran. The Seminary complies with applicable federal legislation and regulations regarding non-discrimination and equal employment opportunity.

Jackson Theological Seminary also reaffirms the principle that its students, faculty, and staff have a right to be free from sexual discrimination in the form of sexual harassment by any member of the Seminary community. Sexual harassment of students and employees at the Seminary is unacceptable conduct, and it is also unlawful.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT AND EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

Jackson Theological Seminary complies with applicable federal and state legislation and regulations regarding nondiscriminatory admission and employment policies and practices by providing equal opportunity to all individuals without discrimination on the basis of extrinsic factors such as ethnic or national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, color, religion, political affiliation, disability, or status as a war veteran. It is, therefore, the institution's policy to accord fair and equitable treatment of every person, at all times. Jackson Theological Seminary will continue to maintain its policy of providing access to general education and Paraprofessional programs to all persons regardless of race, national origin, sex color, creed, and political persuasions. The Seminary, however, recognizes its institutional responsibility to serve its community by making institutional resources available to assist in the cultural, economic, and spiritual development of the community.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, is a federal law that protects the privacy and confidentiality of personally identifiable information contained within student education records. Jackson Theological Seminary complies with FERPA's confidentiality protections and adheres to procedures dealing with student education records and directory information recommended by the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers. This law is commonly known as the Buckley Amendment.

HARASSMENT & BULLYING POLICY

We prohibit harassment/bullying of one student by another student, professor, employee or third party for any reason [“protected class”] including, but not limited to: veteran status, uniform service member status or any other protected class under federal, state, or local law. Harassment of third parties by Jackson staff or students is also prohibited. Harassment/bullying thru all social media are also considered a part of this policy.

In Arkansas/Oklahoma, the following are protected classes: race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, disability, age (40 or over), ancestry, political affiliation, or sexual orientation.

The purpose of this policy is not to regulate the morality of the Seminary. It is to ensure that in any environment, no student, professor, or employee is harassed for any reason or in any manner. The conduct prohibited by this policy includes conduct in any form, including but not limited to e-mail, voicemail, chat rooms, Internet use or history, text messages, pictures, images, writings, words or gestures. While it is not easy to define precisely what harassment is, it includes: slurs, epithets, threats, derogatory comments or visual depictions, unwelcome jokes, and teasing.

Any student that feels he/she is a victim of such harassment should immediately report the matter to the following member of management who has been designated to receive such complaints: Dr. Ron Lindo, Jr. 501-375-2406 ext. 610; rlindo@jtseminary.org.

The Seminary will investigate all such reports as confidentially as possible. Adverse action will not be taken against a student because he/she, in good faith, reports or participates in the investigation of a violation of this policy. Violations of this policy are not permitted and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from the Seminary.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Jackson Theological seminary has a policy that prohibits sexual harassment or sexual discrimination against any staff, faculty, and student of the college on the basis of sex. Actions related to sexual harassment or discrimination based on sex is also prohibited by law, Section 703, Title VII of the Civil Right Act of 1963 and Title IX of the Educational Amendment Act of 1972.

Any member of the Jackson community who violates any of these Acts faces disciplinary action and potential legal consequences.

Sexual harassment is defined as an unwelcome sexual advance, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct. The following non-exhaustive list contains forms of sexual harassment:

1. Submission to such conduct is, explicitly or implicitly, made a term or condition of an individual’s employment or classroom evaluation.
2. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment or academic decisions affecting the status of the individual.

Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work or classroom performance, or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or academic environment.

Jackson Theological Seminary shall take necessary steps to maintain a college environment that is free of sexual harassment and discrimination on the basis of sex through programs and workshops developed to prevent such acts. Members of the college are encouraged to report any violation of this policy against an individual on or outside the college campus to the appropriate college authority. Appropriate administrative departmental action(s) will be taken through either informal or formal procedures.

SMOKING, DRUGS, ALCOHOL & TOBACCO USE

The following expectations of employees and students are intended to protect the health, safety and wellbeing of all individuals associated with the Seminary:

1. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensing, possession, or use of a controlled substance or alcohol is prohibited on campus or at Seminary activities off-campus.
2. The use of a controlled substance shall be permitted if use of the particular drug is permitted by law and has been authorized as a use for medicinal purposes.
3. The Seminary prohibits the use of alcohol at all Seminary-sponsored student events, and on campus grounds, defined as Seminary-owned property and facilities, and including Seminary-owned student housing. The Seminary does not seek to regulate the personal use of alcohol or legal drugs off campus by faculty, students, and staff of legal drinking age.

Violations of the alcohol/drug policy may result in judicial action by the Seminary and/or criminal prosecution. In order to maintain a safe, clean, healthy and comfortable working environment for nonsmoking Faculty/Staff member and to ensure their right to clean air and to comply with applicable Arkansas OSHA laws and city ordinances, the North Little Rock City Council enacted Ordinance 6288 dated 1/23/89. Smoking in the Seminary is prohibited.

STUDENTS' RESPONSIBILITIES

Students are responsible for reading the information in the College catalog. They should understand the policies, rules, and regulations and know the organization of the institution.

WEAPONS POLICY

It is the Policy of Jackson Theological Seminary that no weapons of any kind be allowed on the grounds or in the buildings of Jackson Theological Seminary premises except in the possession of law enforcement authorities/security officers specifically hired by Jackson Theological Seminary or Shorter College or individuals exempted by the CEO. This policy covers all weapons whether concealed or unconcealed, and whether on the person of the possessor.

This policy applies to persons who would otherwise be licensed to carry a concealed weapon under Arkansas law pursuant to Arkansas Act 226 of 2013. Jackson Theological Seminary administrative officials shall maintain appropriate signage and other notice on the campus in the buildings and on the grounds, pursuant to Arkansas Act 226 of 2013, and Arkansas Code 5-73-30(19) to give public notice that Jackson Theological Seminary has specifically elected to prohibit all firearms on its campus including persons who are licensed to carry concealed weapons. Per Arkansas Parking Lot Laws, all weapons in privately owned vehicles must always be kept in your locked personal vehicles. This Policy was adopted by the Jackson Theological Seminary Board of Trustees June 2018. Any faculty, staff or student found in violation of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Jackson Theological Seminary is located on the first floor of the 12th Episcopal District Headquarters Building, 520 North Locust Street, North Little Rock, Arkansas.

Jackson Theological Seminary is adjacent to Shorter College's campus. It is collocated in the 12th Episcopal District Headquarters building. The classrooms are located on both ends of the building. It is bounded by Interstate 30 on the west side, Vine Street on the east side, Broadway Street and the Alltel Arena on the south side, and Eighth Street on the north side. Jackson Theological Seminary is a private, faith-based, Seminary that includes a program for the Master of Divinity Program and the Bachelor of Art in Biblical Studies completion program. Jackson Theological Seminary currently utilized Shorter College's AW Young Library for learning and library resources. The library is equipped with a spacious, well-lit reading room, which contains carrels and study tables, two sizeable conference rooms, and two classrooms.

CAMPUS COMMUNICATIONS

EMAIL AND STUDENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

The communication system at Jackson Theological Seminary is two-fold: school generated emails and Populi, which is the internal online Student Information System (SIS). Populi will be expanded to incorporate internal emails, sharing of documents (homework, forms, information, etc.) as soon as possible.

CATALOG REQUIREMENTS

The Jackson Theological Seminary Catalog 2022-2023 provides information about the academic program of Jackson Theological Seminary. It also contains information concerning admissions, academic regulations and requirements, services available to students, academic offerings, and a list of administrative officers, faculty, and staff of the college. Although courses listed in a curriculum are required, the suggested curricular plan for an academic program does not in any way indicate the length of time required for a student to finish degree requirements. While every effort has been made to ensure completeness and accuracy, changes may occur at any time in requirements, deadlines, fees, curricula, courses and course descriptions. For various reasons, such as insufficient enrollment or limited resources, courses may at times not be offered in the announcement semester. Consequently, students should work with the appropriate advisor in determining a schedule for any given academic session. It should be understood, therefore, that the information in this catalog is not in the nature of contractual obligation.

CATALOG RESTRICTIONS

Students generally follow the academic program current at the time of their admission into Jackson Theological Seminary and may not follow those of earlier catalogs. Exceptions may apply where requirements are imposed by state agencies.

This course will address what it meant to be prophetic in the ancient near east juxtaposed to the post-modern iterations of prophetic speak. Three term hours.

CH 9 A.M.E. Polity – The organization and function of decision making and acceptable conduct in the African Methodist Episcopal Church from a historical perspective and in present day practice. Three term hours.

CH 10 Comparative Religious Studies - A study of world religious traditions and the global patterns of contemporary world religious as symbol systems and expressions of discrete, coherent, worldviews. The course examines the global context of the religions, including themes such as racial and gender equality, poverty and socioeconomic justice, the environment, and war and peace. The purpose of the course is to provide the student with the opportunity to examine and survey religions from Eastern traditions, trace the historical development of the religions, and look at the way they continue to influence billions of people today. Three term hours.

Middler Project – Students will identify an issue in the Church or the community and develop a thesis to address it using historical experiences that mirror the issue, their own experience with the issue, biblical principles that address the issue and established theological viewpoints that support the student's thesis. Three term hours.

TH 4 Global Methodism – The study of the intercontinental beginning and blossoming of Methodism, its historical impact and future survival. Three term hours.

TH 5 Black Theology – A study of contemporary North American "black theology," with special attention to both its characteristic features and its development of social ethics. Principal readings include works by James Cone, Dwight Hopkins, Katie Cannon, and Jacquelyn Grant. Three term hours.

TH 8 The Theology of African Methodism – Understanding the impact and idiosyncrasies of Methodism from the Black perspective, primarily in the African Methodist Episcopal Church but also in its close historical relationship to other Black Methodist movements. Three term hours.

TH 9 Womanist Theology - An exploration of the critique and vision brought to contemporary theology by Black women's perspectives represented in texts by feminist and womanist theologians, and in women's fiction and essays. Three term hours.

Senior Project - Students will develop their Middler Project thesis into a tangible, actionable project that is the culmination of the answers they derived from their thesis. This project must include a full write up on the materials, resources, timeline and personnel needed for initiating their project. The project objectives must be quantitatively or qualitatively measurable based on the student's approach to implementation. Three term hours.

SUPERVISED MINISTRY AND MINISTRY FORMATION

Ministry formation is an integral part of the education at Jackson Theological Seminary. The student's field assignment becomes a primary place for learning about theology and ministry. In the Supervised Ministry/Ministry Formation sessions, reflection on ministry is emphasized. The case study method is employed, along with the analysis of critical incidents to help the student reflect on her/his field experience. The student is called upon to bring to these sessions' insight from other courses. Some of the Supervised Ministry/Ministry Formation sessions focus directly upon the individual's beliefs about his/her ministry and pastoral care, as well as personal development and growth. The acquisition of basic human relations skills and the fundamentals of pastoral counseling are emphasized. Every student is expected to spend one semester in a church setting and one semester in an agency setting.

The particular assignment in the church setting varies with the individual. In the church context, teaching church committees are established. The student's mentor professor has an orientation session with each of these committees to help them learn about their supervisory role. The committee meets with the student on a regular basis to provide feedback concerning the student's ministry. The committee also participates in an evaluation of the student's development.

One semester of Supervised Ministry is spent in an agency setting. The program stresses the importance of the minister's role in the community. The student develops an understanding of how social service agencies function, both for the purpose of responding to the various needs within a given congregation and community and to learn about the methods employed by agencies to assist those in need.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS - POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

COURSE LOAD

Enrollment of at least 9 credit hours per semester is considered full-time for M.Div. students planning to graduate in three years. (The minimum academic load for a fulltime student is nine hours.) Students must receive permission from the Chief Academic Officer to enroll in more than 15 credit hours. The maximum course load at Jackson Theological Seminary for M.Div. students is 18 credit hours per semester with the approval of the advisor and the Chief Academic Officer. Students enrolling for 18 credit hours, who also wish to enroll in Supervised Ministry, may take a maximum of 20 credit hours with the additional approval of the Chief Academic Officer.

CROSS REGISTRATION

A student is permitted to cross-register with participating schools for no more than one course per semester and for no more than a total of 12 credit hours throughout the degree program. During the academic year, a student on academic probation is not permitted to cross-register. The permission of the relevant instructor is required when a student wishes to cross-register.

GRADING SCALE

Student proficiency is recorded in terms of the following symbols: (per 3 credit hour class)

GRADE	PERCENTAGE VALUE	CREDIT
A+	97-100	4.0
A	93 - 96	4.0
A-	90 - 92	3.7

CREDIT HOURS DEFINED

The academic year operates under a semester system. Credit for all courses is recorded in semester credit hours. One credit hour amounts to one hour of in-class instruction and two hours of additional student work per week. A 50-minute period of instruction per week for one semester is equivalent to one (1) credit hour. All courses must meet the equivalent of 750 contact minutes (direct instruction) per credit value. Each student is expected to perform a minimum of two hours of out-of-class work each week for each credit hour of instruction. Most of the courses offered by the Seminary meet twice a week for one hour and 20 minutes and carry three (3) semester credit hours.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Academic honors are recognized at Jackson Theological Seminary during commencement for students who achieve a cumulative grade point average (GPA) according to the following standard:

Summa Cum Laude	(3.90 – 4.00)
Magna Cum Laude	(3.75 – 3.89)
Cum Laude	(3.50 – 3.74)

In order to earn honors, a student must complete at least 60 credit hours at Jackson Theological Seminary, and only courses taken at Jackson will be considered in the cumulative GPA calculation.

INCOMPLETE WORK

In exceptional cases, such as illness or family emergency, a student may request an incomplete grade from an instructor no later than the last day of class. Thereafter, an incomplete must be requested from the Chief Academic Officer. If approved, the instructor signs the Incomplete Form or sends approval by email to the Registrar. Course work for an approved incomplete must be completed and submitted no later than 30 days after the last day of the session for M.Div. and special students. Students who fail to submit required course work by the deadline will receive an “F” grade for the course.

For intensive courses, such as those offered during the summer term, requests for an incomplete must be made directly to the instructor by the due date of the last assignment for the course as stated in the course syllabus. Any student request that comes after the appropriate deadline but within ten days of the deadline must be requested from the Chief Academic Officer.

The instructor is required to submit the grade change within thirty days of receiving the completed work from the student. Incomplete grades can jeopardize a student’s financial aid status. Students with at least one incomplete are placed on Registrar Hold until the incomplete is resolved. Students on Registrar Hold will have limited access in the student information system (SIS), including the inability to register for upcoming courses.

ACADEMIC PROGRESS-STANDINGS

Satisfactory academic progress (SAP) is checked at the conclusion of each semester. In order to meet the requirements of SAP, a Bachelors/M.Div. student must achieve a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA.

If a student meets or exceeds the minimum of 2.5 GPA, the student will be listed as in “Good Standing”. If a student fails to meet SAP requirements, the student will be placed on academic warning for the coming semester. If a student fails to meet satisfactory progress during the academic warning period, the student will be placed on academic probation.

Students on academic warning and/or academic probation may only take up to nine (9) credits per semester. Students on academic probation must work with the CAO to develop an academic plan in an effort to meet satisfactory progress in an efficient and timely manner. In addition, probation students will be placed on registration hold and must consult with the registrar in order to have the classes approved and the hold released.

There are times in which a semester’s worth of credits may not be enough to increase the cumulative GPA to a minimum 2.5. In these instances, so long as the student receives a minimum 2.5 GPA for the semester in which they are on academic warning or probation, the respective status will continue into the future semester until satisfactory academic progress is made.

Students that fail to meet the requirements of academic probation may be subject to suspension from the program and/or dismissal from the institution.

Students who have been suspended from the program may appeal for re-entry at the beginning of the next semester. To appeal, the student must provide a written letter with evidence to the Dean and Registrar that the problems causing the unsatisfactory progress have been resolved.

ACADEMIC CLASSIFICATIONS

BA and M.Div.: Students are classified according to the number of credit hours completed. The required credit hours for each classification are as follows:

BA STUDENTS
Sophomore	30-59 credit hours
Junior	60-89 credit hours
Senior	90 + credit hours
MDIV STUDENTS
Junior	1–29 credit hours
Mid (Middler)	30–59 credit hours
Senior	60 + credit hours

DROP ADD POLICY

Classes may be dropped during the first two weeks of the session. Intensives may be dropped up to the day before the start of the class. Dropped classes will not count against you in your cumulative grade point average. Please see the official Drop/Add Policy in the Finance Information section for complete details.

WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES

VOLUNTARY WITHDRAW

Voluntary Withdrawal from Jackson Theological Seminary requires the submission of an official Notice of Intent to Withdraw to the Registrar. Until an official withdrawal form has been submitted to the Registrar, the student is not considered officially withdrawn from the seminary, which may adversely affect the student’s grade point average, academic standing, and financial aid or tuition refunds. A student who received financial aid funds at the Seminary and withdraws from the Seminary during the semester (for any reason) must consult the Financial Aid Officer to have a withdrawal calculation performed.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

A Bachelors/M.Div. student may request a leave of absence due to extenuating circumstances.

Students who request to take a leave of absence should complete the Drop Add Form requesting a leave of absence. Students should return the completed Form and copies of official documentation (if required) to the Registrar. If approved by the Faculty Advisor, the Registrar will then place the student on Leave Status in SIS.

The maximum length of time for a leave of absence is one calendar year. Those who do not return by the next semester (fall or spring) after one year will need to reapply.

INVOLUNTARY WITHDRAW

Involuntary Withdrawal is issued when the Seminary is forced to ask a student to leave because of a violation of seminary rules and regulations, conduct deemed unacceptable, or when the student misses several classes without notification. No adjustment is made to student charges. The official date of withdrawal is determined by the Registrar.

STUDENT PARTICIPATION

Class participation is essential for effective learning. Students will be expected to participate in all classes unless prevented by illness or emergency. Instructors will clearly define in the syllabus the make-up policy for the course. Participation is included in the calculation of course grades, which will be defined and documented in the course syllabus.

ACADEMIC ETHICS

Jackson Theological Seminary trusts the students who enroll at Jackson to be honest seekers of truth and knowledge. This trust is extended to all students by other students and teachers and is manifested in a variety of forms.

Jackson Theological Seminary is committed to providing educational opportunities that promote academic, professional and personal growth in students. Students are expected to behave as responsible members of the Seminary community and to be honest and ethical in their academic work. Activities of academic dishonesty corrupt the process of acquiring the knowledge and developing the skills necessary for success in ministry; such activities are considered a violation of the Student Rules of Conduct and are therefore prohibited.

Students must be mindful that, although Jackson encourages cooperative and collaborative, rather than competitive, modes of learning, one's work must still be one's own, unless explicitly assigned to a group. Giving or receiving aid inappropriately on assignments and tests or plagiarizing by using another person's words or ideas without credit, constitutes a serious breach of our trust in one another and in the integrity of the search for truth.

The use of another person’s work as if it were one’s own is deemed as plagiarism. If the work of another is used, acknowledgement of the original source must be made using a recognized referencing practice. If another’s words are borrowed in whole or in part or merely recast in the student’s own words, proper acknowledgement must be made.

PENALTIES FOR ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The minimum penalty for dishonesty in an interim paper or examination shall be a mark of zero. The minimum penalty for dishonesty in a research paper or final examination shall be a grade of “F” for the course. For flagrant or repeated violation of academic integrity, additional penalties may be imposed through referral of the matter to the Chief Academic Officer. The maximum penalty for academic dishonesty is dismissal from the Seminary. Those who believe they have witnessed violations of academic integrity should feel the obligation to speak about this to the suspected offender. The witness should also feel obligated to report the suspected offender to the professor if the person fails to offer a satisfactory explanation and refuses to report him or herself.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM

Jackson Theological Seminary affirms that this institution of higher education are conducted for the common good and not to further the interest of either the individual faculty member or the institution as a whole. The common good depends upon the free search for truth and its exposition.

Academic freedom is essential to these purposes and applies to all disciplines. Freedom in research is fundamental to the advancement of truth. Academic freedom in all disciplines is fundamental for the protection of the rights of the faculty and the student. It carries with it duties correlative with rights, regardless of employment status.

ACADEMIC & STUDENT SERVICES

Through the office of the Chief Academic Officer, we offer a host of student services for those enrolled in classes at Jackson Theological Seminary.

ACADEMIC ADVISING & REGISTRATION

The Chief Academic Officer (CAO) will assign a faculty advisor to assist each student with their academic decisions as they matriculate their graduate and undergraduate experience. In addition, the Registrar’s Office will work with students on registering for courses and monitoring degree audits. The cost and payment of each student’s education must be completed by the end of each semester.

Open registration occurs at the following times:
Fall semester registration begins	1 – August
Spring semester registration begins	1 – November
Summer term registration begins	TBD

Academic faculty serving as academic advisors are responsible for discussing the following with students:

- Defining career goals
- How to effectively lead
- The discipline of ministry
- How do effectively handle administrative issues
- Skills to prepare for advanced academic aspirations
- Successful networking
- Individual student needs who have learning disabilities

Students can register through the student information system (SIS) POPULI [Populi - Jackson Theological Seminary \(populiweb.com\)](http://Populi - Jackson Theological Seminary (populiweb.com)).

If a student registers following the close of the open registration period, a Drop/Add form must be completed, and the student will be assessed a $50 late registration fee.

The Director of Administration and Records (DAR) will work with new students individually to register them for their first semester (no late fees will be assessed for the first semester). Following the first semester, students are responsible for registering themselves during the open registration period defined above. Tuition is due at the time of enrollment.

The Course Schedule is published each semester via the website at www.jtseminary.org. It provides information on all courses offered during that semester and important semester dates.

CAREER COUNSELING

The career counseling process will help the students know and understand themselves and the world of work in order to make career, educational, and life decisions. Career development is more than just deciding on a concentration and what job students want when they graduate. It gives objective and professional advice on their thoughts, feelings and concerns about their career and education. It helps you organize your thoughts and potential career choices. Lastly, career counseling helps the students identify factors influencing their career development. assess their interests, abilities and values. The process for career counseling is as follows: The Student will inform the professors who will then inform the Full-Time Faculty who them will schedule the career counseling session.

TUTORING PROGRAM

Provides individual tutoring for students needing and requesting assistance in a course subject. Writing assistance and labs can be coordinated with the individual instructor and/or available staff members.

Extra help and learning assistance can be provided upon request from the faculty instructor and can be made available in every subject. Additionally, peer academic facilitators can be coordinated to assist students having learning difficulties.

Disabilities services and support shall likewise be made available to students diagnosed with specific learning disabilities, students with physical disabilities, illnesses and other learning challenges.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Through partnership with various non-profits in both the secular and faith community we will provide externships and or arrange volunteer opportunities. For those students who are interested JTS can set up community service opportunities for any student who has reached the Middler level. This also could potentially lead to job placements.

LIBRARY SERVICES

The library is a vital component in the education and research program of Jackson Theological Seminary. Jackson Theological Seminary's Library is cohoused in the Shorter College's Library. It provides bibliographic and physical access to recorded knowledge and information in support of learning, teaching, and research needs of seminary students, staff, faculty, and administrators. Jackson Theological Students will be allowed to share the library housed on the Shorter College Campus. The library comprises a unique collection emphasizing African American theological, historical, cultural, and biblical studies. The dedicated support staff provides a wide range of services and guidance for maximum use of the library's resources. Jackson Theological Seminary is also in a sharing program with Payne Theological Seminary (see the Library Manual for details).

CHARGES

A fine is assessed for books overdue, payable at the time books are returned. Missing or damaged library volumes are billed directly to the student's account per the Library Manual.

LIBRARY AND CLASSROOM

The purpose of the Jackson Theological Seminary Copyright Compliance Policy for the Library and the Classroom is to provide a summary of United States Copyright Law as it relates to the use of copyright protected works in the classroom and library at Jackson Theological Seminary. This policy covers copyright issues including but not limited to photocopying, face-to-face classrooms, print and electronic holdings, Interlibrary loans and document deliveries. This policy is not intended to be a substitute for legal advice.

Specific rights are granted to students and faculty for their individual creative work. U.S. Copyright Act (Title 17, U.S. Code). Among the exclusive rights granted to "authors" are the rights to reproduce, distribute, publicly perform and publicly display their works. These works may include books, magazines, journals, newsletters, maps, charts, photographs, other printed materials, and non- printed materials.

These rights provide copyright holders control over the use of their creations and an ability to benefit monetarily and otherwise, from the use of their works. Non-copyright holders, as determined by the law, must generally obtain copyright permission prior to using or reproducing that work. Exceptions in the Copyright Act are for certain academic uses; for example, permission is not required for actions such as reading or borrowing original literary works or photographs from a library collection. See Fair Use Provision (Copyright Act, Section 107).

Under the Fair Use Provision, a reproduction of someone else's copyright-protected work is likely to be considered fair if it is used for one of the following purposes: criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching, scholarship and research. If the reproduction is for one of these purposes, a determination as to whether the reproduction is fair use must be made based upon these four factors:

1. Purpose and character of the use
2. Nature of the copyright – protected work
3. Amount and substantiality of work used
4. Effect of the use on the market or potential market value of the work

To minimize the risk of copyright infringement, Jackson interprets the following as fair use of copyrighted works:

1. Quotation of short passages in a scholarly or technical work for illustration or clarification of the author's observations.
2. Spontaneous one-time use of reproduction of material for classroom use.
3. Use in parody of short portions of the work itself.
4. A summary of an address or article, which may include quotations of short passages.

If the use does not meet the above criteria and the work is protected by copyright, permission from the copyright holder or agent needs to be obtained.

Classroom Handouts fall into two categories; one that requires permission and one that does not. If the handout is spontaneous and a new work that permission could not be obtained in a timely manner, the work may be used without obtaining permission. If the handout is planned in advance, repeated from semester to semester, or involves works that have existed long enough to obtain permission in advance; the work cannot be used without permission.

Copies of a publication that the Library owns may be placed on reserve in the library without obtaining copyright permission. However, the library cannot reproduce additional copies and place them on reserve for students to review, in either paper or electronic format, without obtaining copyright permission.

Photocopying by students is subject to a fair use analysis as well. Photocopying all the assignments from a book recommended for purchase by the professor, making multiple copies of articles or book chapters for distribution to classmates, or copying material from consumable workbooks, all require copyright permission.

Photocopying in the Jackson Library is permissible without obtaining permission from the copyright owner, under the following circumstances:

1. Library user requests one copy of an article from a periodical or short excerpt of any other work.
2. The reproduction must become the property of the library user.
3. The library staff must have no reason to believe that the reproduction will be used for purposes other than private study, scholarship and research.

4. The library must display: The Copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproduction of copyright material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not “used for any purposes other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Up to three reproductions of any unpublished work owned by the library may be made for preservation, security or for deposit for research use in another library or archives, including digital reproductions, of a published work that is lost, stolen, damaged, deteriorating or stored in an obsolete format.

2. Former students of Jackson Theological Seminary prior to 2010 who can provide necessary documentation (i.e., transcript, diploma, syllabi from courses) and are accepted into the institution will receive $25.00 off their tuition per credit hour.

STUDENT COMPLAINT/GRIEVANCE POLICY

The core values of Jackson Theological Seminary embrace:

1. Excellence
2. Tolerance
3. Servant Leadership
4. Spiritual Formation, Growth and Transformation

These values are demonstrated by a passion for high standards, which include respect, honesty, justice, integrity and accountability. Tolerance is demonstrated through an unreserved acceptance of the concepts of love, justice, forgiveness and a capacity for openness to difference. Further, Jackson believes in a servant leadership that is lived out through being a responsible steward who serves with care, humility and strength of boldness as he/she articulates his/her vision and inspires others. We are committed to an on-going process of spiritual formation, growth and transformation through honest self-reflection and prayer.

It is recognized that disagreements and misunderstandings will occur within the human community. Therefore, this grievance policy is guided by the above values and behaviors and a desire for conflict resolution within a spirit and atmosphere of love and tolerance.

This policy covers all student grievances, except those infractions covered by law, such as sexual harassment and gender and age discrimination, which apply to the whole community. These areas are covered in a different policy and will require a different process.

STUDENT RULES AND CODE CONDUCT

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner supportive of the educational mission of the institution. Integrity, respect for the person and property of others, and a commitment to intellectual and personal growth in a diverse population are values deemed fundamental to membership in this Seminary community.

Jackson Theological Seminary considers the following behavior, or attempts thereof, by a student or student organization, whether acting alone or with any other persons, to violate the Student Rules of Conduct. The student, by enrollment, assumes submission to these Student Rules of Conduct.

1. Physical harm or threat of physical harm or general conduct that threatens the mental health of any person or persons.
2. Physical, verbal, oral, or written harassment that is beyond the bounds of protected free speech.
3. Disorderly conduct, including but not limited to, public intoxication, lewd, indecent or obscene behavior, or intentional disruption of lawful activities of the Seminary.
4. Theft, damage to personal/Seminary property, or unauthorized entry, use or occupation of Seminary facilities.
5. Forgery, alteration, fabrication, or misuse of records, grades, diplomas, Seminary documents, and identification cards.

6. Illegal purchase, use, possession, or distribution of alcohol, drugs, or controlled substances on Seminary property.
7. Non-compliance with directives of Seminary officials on safety and security issues.
8. Possession of firearms, explosive devices, fireworks, dangerous or illegal weapons, or hazardous materials.
9. Interference with or misuse of fire alarms, or other safety and security equipment or programs.
10. Violation of any federal, state, or local law that has a negative impact on the wellbeing of the Seminary or its individual members.
11. Violation of Seminary policies, rules, or regulations that are published in the catalog or any other official Seminary publications or agreements.

Failure to abide by these rules can lead to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion from the Seminary.

DUE PROCESS

Students have the right to due process before formal disciplinary sanctions are imposed by the Seminary for violations of the Student Rules of Conduct. Students have the right to written notification and the opportunity for a hearing before any change in status is incurred for disciplinary reasons, unless a significant threat to persons or property exists.

If a student has a disagreement with a faculty member, another student, staff member, or a member of the administration, he/she will follow the following process:

Step 1

Complete the first section of the Complaint/Grievance Form (see Agenda) and try to resolve the issue with the individual. If the issue is resolved here, the two parties sign the form that the issue is resolved, and the grievance stops here. If it is not resolved here, the parties will sign (only the aggrieved party needs to sign) that the issue is not resolved and the reasons it is not resolved.

Step 2

The second section of the form must be completed and sent to the Chief Academic Officer. The CAO will meet with the aggrieved parties and attempt to resolve the issue. If the issue is resolved here, both parties and the CAO will sign and date the form and state the resolution. The process stops here. If the issue is not resolved here, the parties will sign and date that the issue is not resolved, and the reason it was not resolved.

Step 3

The third section of the form will be completed by the aggrieved party: A petition to the Grievance Committee. This petition is addressed in a hearing held by the Grievance Committee. The decision of the Grievance Committee is final. The petition is signed and dated by the chair of the Grievance Committee and a letter sent to the aggrieved party stating the decision and the rationale for the decision. A copy of the letter is attached to the Grievance Form, which is filed in the Grievance File by the chair of the Grievance Committee.

It is recognized that some students may not be satisfied with the decision of the Grievance Committee. In this case, the petition and attached decision of the Grievance Committee can be appealed to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). The CEO will decide based upon the documentation and write a letter to the aggrieved party informing her/him of the decision. A copy of the letter will be attached to the previous papers and placed in the Grievance File.

If a student has an issue with a member of the Grievance Committee, that person should remove himself/herself from the committee for the hearing and be replaced by another person from his/ her area. A Grievance Form can be obtained in Academic Services.

COMPLAINT AND GRIEVANCE COMMITTEE

A standing student grievance committee consists of the following representatives:

1. Two student representatives
2. One faculty representative
3. One staff representative
4. One administration representative

The committee representatives will be selected by the groups they represent: for example, students will be selected by the student government; the faculty member will be selected by the faculty; the staff representative will be selected by the staff; and the administration representative will be selected by the administration. The Chief Academic Officer shall appoint all members of the Grievance committee. The faculty, staff and administration representatives on the grievance committee will be selected at the beginning of the academic year and will serve for one year: August 1 through July 31.

The student representatives will be selected during the spring of an academic year and will serve through the fall of the following academic year.

FILING A COMPLAINT WITH STATE AGENCY

Students must follow the institution's published student grievance process before contacting the Arkansas Department of Higher Education (ADHE). Grievance policies can usually be found in the academic catalog, student handbook, or institution's website. Grievances regarding student grades or conduct violations are governed entirely by institutional policy and Arkansas law and will not be considered by ADHE. If a student must report an unresolved grievance, the student may contact ADHE at ADHE_Info@adhe.edu. Resolutions by ADHE are final. Students must submit a written grievance to ADHE. The grievant also must provide written documentation from the college/university verifying that the institution's appeal process has been followed."
